Volunteers:

Interested in volunteering at the show? Contact SueHill@BarberInstitute.org for available timeslots.

Important Information:

- Adult artists will be charged either:
    $20 entry fee for each submission FOR SALE
    $25 entry fee for each submission NFS
- Cash, check (payable to Dr. Gertrude A. Barber Educational Institute) and debit/credit card payments accepted.
- All youth artwork (age 18 and under or high school student) is submitted free of charge.
- Artwork must be submitted with a completed entry form. An entry label must be affixed to the back or underside of each piece.
- Artists may submit up to two pieces. Due to space limitations, both pieces might not be accepted into the show. Artists will be notified in advance if their submission(s) will not be included, and will have the option to pick up their art prior to the show.
- Out-of-town work may be submitted by prepaid shipment; include entry forms and return shipping fee.
- Artwork will not be accepted after March 7.

What is Accepted:

- Submissions that are to be hung must be delivered framed, wired and ready for hanging. Unframed artwork that cannot be hung will not be accepted.
- Canvas stretched over a wood frame must be wired to hang, but does not require an additional frame.
- Work can include painting, photography, graphics, sculpture, ceramics, etc. Crafts and jewelry cannot be accepted.
- Works must not exceed measurement of 48” wide x 84” long, and should not exceed 100 lbs.
- If artwork requires specialized installation, please contact us before submitting.
- The Barber National Institute reserves the right to review submissions for content, and will not display work considered inappropriate.
- Artwork exhibited in our previous shows cannot be submitted again.
- Schools and youth organizations may enter up to 20 submissions but no more than two per student. Unique artwork by each student is encouraged; multiple variations on a theme may not be accepted.

Conditions of Submission:

Although every precaution is taken to protect artwork and frames, entries are exhibited at the artist’s own risk. The Barber National Institute reserves the right to photographically reproduce any work for publicity or educational purposes, and to include the name of the artist in all promotional materials.

Sale of Artwork:

Sales are encouraged to help benefit services at the Barber National Institute. A 25% commission is charged on all sales; any additional donation by artists is greatly appreciated. “NFS” must be clearly marked on entries that are Not For Sale; “Price on Request” is not accepted. Artists cannot change prices after submission.

Artists are strongly encouraged to submit artwork that is available for purchase. If space limitations reduce the number of entries that can be accepted, preference will be given to artwork that is listed as being for sale.
