Planning for What's Next: TRANSITIONING TO ADULT SERVICES

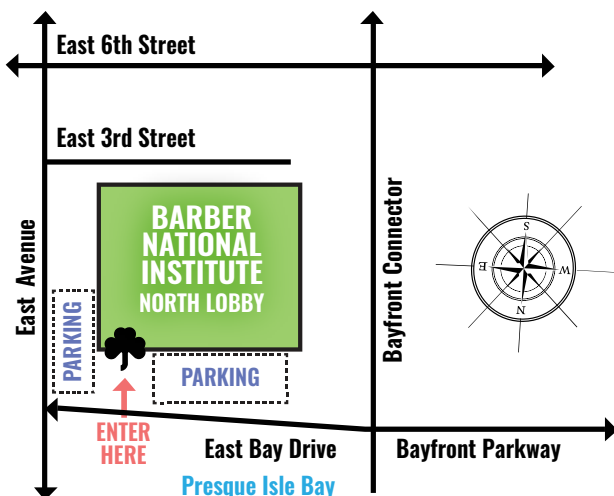

An informational session for families and caregivers

As graduation approaches, many families wonder what comes next. Join us to learn about the wide range of adult day services and community opportunities available through Barber National Institute:

- Skill development
- Supported employment
- Social and interest-based programs
- Volunteering

You'll meet members of our team, ask questions, and learn how we partner with families to build a plan that fits your son's or daughter's goals and abilities.
