

You are Making a Difference

Whether you're a golfer or a sponsor, your support of the Shillelagh Golf Tournament is truly making a difference in the lives of children and adults with intellectual disabilities and behavioral health challenges. Funds from this year's event will support the wide range of services that help more than 4,300 individuals we serve every year achieve their dreams, including:

- Premier educational programs in the Elizabeth Lee Black School for more than 240 students from 22 area school districts.
- The Supported Employment Program that assisted 26 adults find jobs in the community last year.
- An Outpatient Behavioral Health Clinic that meets a pressing need for behavioral health services in the community.
- A new service that provides job exploration to students with disabilities while they are still in high school.

2017 Shillelagh Man of the Year

Peter Russo, Sr. has been active in the community's athletic and educational endeavors for more than 50 years, leading parks and recreation programs for the City and County and serving as director of Athletics for Mercyhurst College.

Pete earned bachelor's and master's degrees in Education from Gannon University, where he was the captain and leading scorer for the college's varsity basketball team for two consecutive years. He also was a PIAA and college Men's Basketball official for 35 years, chairman of the NCAA Division II Men's Basketball Committee for the Great Lakes Region, and was inducted into the Erie Sports Hall of Fame.

Since joining the Advancement office part-time at the Barber National Institute in 2012, he has raised more than $100,000 in donations, including $24,000 in funding over four years from the Erie Siebenbuerger Club for a SeaWolves baseball clinic for children and adults with disabilities.

Together with his in-laws, the Riazzi Family, Pete co-sponsored the Barber Beast on the Bay Adapted Course for two years.

Pete and his wife, Flo, are the parents of five children and have five grandchildren.
